

ALBERTA CENTENNIAL SCULPTURE EXHIBITION

NORTH
EDMONTON SCULPTURE WORKSHOP

This year, the North Edmonton Sculpture Workshop (NESW) presents its fourth annual exhibition on the Museum's front terrace. The Alberta Centennial Sculpture Exhibition presents new directions in steel sculpture by three emerging artists working at the NESW. With this exhibition, the NESW seeks to increase public awareness and appreciation of local contemporary sculpture while boosting the vitality of the local art community. For more information, please e-mail: nesw@telusplanet.net.

On the Royal Alberta Museum's front terrace until September 25, 2005

Don't Cry for Me

Still Life

Andrew French

Andrew French was born in Wiltshire, England. He studied Fine Arts at Canterbury Art College and the University of Alberta. Since joining the Workshop, Andrew has been the recipient of Alberta Foundation for the Arts awards and has been employed as a sessional tutor at the University of Alberta.

The Abduction of Liberty

The Persistence of Tyranny

Ryan McCourt

Born in Edmonton, Ryan McCourt graduated from the University of Alberta in 1999 with a Master of Fine Arts Degree. McCourt has served as an adjudicator at a variety of art competitions, as a Guest Curator for the Edmonton Art Gallery, and is an award-winning founder of the North Edmonton Sculpture Workshop. To view his other artworks, visit www.telusplanet.net/public/rmccourt

Plowshares and Pruninghooks

Passenger/Porter

Rob Willms

Rob was born in 1969 in Abbotsford, B.C. and holds degrees in Religion and Fine Arts. He helped establish the Society of Student Artists (now the New Artist Society of Edmonton) in 2001. Rob's sculptures are sited in numerous Western Canadian collections; a select list of locations is available online at www.robwillms.ca

ROYAL ALBERTA MUSEUM

Alberta