

---

Wild Light

photographs by Dale Hudjik

...at The Provincial Museum of Alberta

---

Dale Hudjik is a photographer whose goal is to transform imagination into memory. Dale's photography has been viewed by people in more than 80 countries.

The Wild Light photographic exhibition envisions thoughts and feelings that would be very difficult to express with words.

---

What others have said about Dale's artistry:

"Mystic, eerie, magical, wondrous, spirited, fluent, alluring. [I am] at a loss for words. I'd say you captured the elusive images of imagination. Beautiful!"

"Dale Hudjik is a poet! His very soul shows through his photography."

---

The Provincial Museum of Alberta is proud to feature the work of such a talented local photographer.

The Wild Light exhibition will be featured at the Museum until January 9, 2005.

Visit Dale's website at:
<http://www.spunwithtears.com>

---

For more information, contact:

Todd Crawshaw
Communications Coordinator
(780) 453 - 9186
todd.crawshaw@gov.ab.ca

The Provincial Museum of Alberta
12845 - 102 Ave., Edmonton, AB
(780) 453 - 9100

www.pma.edmonton.ab.ca